London's Buildings: Almost Lost

4th - 30th April 2014

The Gallery, 77 Cowcross Street, London EC1M 6EL

Insensitive comprehensive development threatened London's character, such as in Soho in the 1950s.

Almost Lost was curated for English Heritage by Polly Hudson and was shown at the Wellington Arch in December 2013. It charts the highs and lows of London's care of its built form. It shows also the potential of new ways of demonstrating the continuing and accelerating change of the face of this great World City.
